Program and Activities

Awareness & Advocacy Programme

C2FRY-Rukum has mobilized marginalized, women, children, Dalit, Janjati and Haliya community to aware and advocate on human right, youth right and women right, gender balance and access of development to community in Nepal. It is lurching advocacy that all the people have right to participate, contribute and consume in economic, social, cultural & political developmental processes and their basic needs of education, health & sanitation and motivate community to stop all type of violence.

Education Programme

C2FRY-Rukum has conducted the Formal and Non-formal education like Adults literacy classes in many project areas of Nepal. C2FRY-RUKUM conducted education for children (mainstreaming 6-9 Yrs) programme in Nepal for especially displaced, conflict affected community and children of stone quarry workers, victimized families etc.

Leadership Building Training :

C2FRY-RUKUM organizes Leadership training to the young emerging youth leaders. The sole aim of leadership training is to enable every youth to eradicate social problems. After taking capacity building training, youth can advocate their rights. S/he can speak in a mass and raise voice for social justice.

Youth Clubs

The main objective of the Youth club formation is to organize all the youth into a framework to work to ensure youth rights. The clubs advocate the rights of education and employment to the youth and promote the skillful and self depend life. The club member guides the youth who are outside club circle.

Health and Sanitation Programme

C2FRY-Rukum has conducted health, hygiene and sanitation activities such as environmental, healthy home survey, personally and community health programme in Nepal.

Income Generating Program

C2FRY-Rukum has formulated women and men groups and conducted the Group Management, Saving and Credit, Kitchen garden, Vegetable Production trainings for them. These trainings provided skills and knowledge for their self-reliant development. One third of the population of Nepal are still living in absolute poverty, deprived of basic amenities of life such as food, clothing, shelter, health and sanitation, education, drinking water, etc. The poor live predominantly in rural areas and engage in survival on agriculture, stone quarry, sand mines, coal mines, and small plots of land of low quality. They have limited access to credit, infrastructure, markets, and basic social services, often because of remoteness and rely heavily on seasonal migration, and remittance. People of certain casts, ethnic, women, and those who are living in remote areas are socially excluded and lag seriously behind in terms of income, assist and most human development indicator.

Environmental Sanitation and Health Education Training

C2FRY-Rukum has conducted environmental sanitation and health education training programme. These trainings provided some technical knowledge on sanitary toilets and basic health for the trainee and also NGO supported the materials to construct the latrine in these districts. Under the environment awareness programmed NGO provide the Catchments Protection, Plantation and Source Protection training to participants and user's groups.

Rural Water Supply Program

C2FRY-Rukum has formulated the users groups and conducted pure drinking water supply and Sanitation program in Nepal. C2FRY-RUKUM also provided the source management and repairing training to users groups and also supported planning, designing and construction of the rural and urban areas of the various districts of Nepal.

Livelihood Program

C2FRY-Rukum has been conducting different types of community based program designed and launch and supported to community to implement the IG Program in Nepal. Reaching out to the poorest with more resources and bring them into the core of development, C2FRY-RUKUM has taken the strategy to support the idea that poor community should themselves organize to formulate, to implement and manage their program and they should sit on the driving seat. Demand driven activities such as income generating, infrastructure and other livelihood increase programs are encouraged to launch in communities. Income generating subprojects chosen by target communities are, agriculture and agro forestry, livestock/animal husbandry, manufacturing/collage industry, trade sector, service sector etc, infrastructure area, micro irrigation, small village road links, culverts, wooden bridge, wire bridge, micro-hydro, water supply, sanitation, extension/rehabilitation support for school building, health post building etc. monitoring, coordination and linkage to communalities, arrangements to provide necessary technical assistance and support to community, organize monthly meetings to share implementation progress and lesson learnt.

Infrastructure Program

C2FRY-Rukum has supported the community to construct agriculture Road, school building etc in Nepal. People from marginalized communities in the rural areas are being benefited from this program and have improved their living life standards.

Social Inclusion

Important features of social exclusion in Nepal and C2FRY-RUKUM's assistant to it, spatial exclusion, effected through disparities in development levels owing to the remoteness and location specific characters; Gender based exclusion manifested in poor development indicator for women, caste/ethnicity based exclusion of specific castes, communities, indigenous people and nationalities leading to low level of development achievements, C2FRY-RUKUM assisted to spatial inclusion through focusing the most deprived districts as well as providing services in other poverty ridden areas, Caste/ethnic inclusion by reaching to the poor and focus on marginalized, displaced, ethnic and Dalit people in poor communities. Similarly C2FRY-RUKUM has done lots of things for gender based inclusion, especially women centered programs are launched and providing many trainings and skills to women for women employment. Self independent practices were forced to women for their capacity building and economy strengthening activities.

Workshop/Meeting/Seminar Conducted

C2FRY-Rukum has been conducting various workshops, meetings, seminar regarding various projects in different project areas. The meeting or seminars with the different stakeholders concerning the programs are given importance because without the support of stakeholders the successful completion of the project as well as the sustainability of the project is out of hand.

Conservation and Promotion of Natural Resources

C2FRY-Rukum is working with marginalized communities for the conservation and promotion of natural resources. This organization is currently working for the conservation of Non-Timber Forest Product (NTFP) like Yarsagumba enhancing the livelihood of local community through promotion of local medicinal and aromatic plants.
